

POST 83 HOUSING COOPERATIVE - MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION - INFORMATION PAGE

Annual income requirements - to determine if you are eligible to apply:

- For a non-subsidized one bedroom (1BD) you must earn an annual combined household income of $70,600.00 or more;
- For a non-subsidized two-bedroom (2BD) you must earn an annual combined household income of $83,640.00 or more;

To submit your application, please return all the following to our office by email, mail or in person only:

- Your completed Membership Application Form (pages 3-8 of this document).
  - Make sure you complete all the fields, especially for all people that you are applying to live in the unit. If the blank fields do not pertain to you, write N/A. Please type or print clearly on all pages.
  - Sign the application
- A photocopy (NOT originals) of your most recent Notice of Assessment from the Canada Revenue Agency. This page states your income and the income tax that you have paid for the past tax year. You must include a Notice of Assessment for each applicant, co-applicant and adult over 18. Please delete your Social Insurance Number. If you are unable to obtain a Notice of Assessment, then Post 83 will consider alternate, verifiable proof of income such as employment letters that state your annual salary, pay stubs and bank statements. In your application form, please indicate the reason you are unable to produce a Notice of Assessment.
- Supporting Documents such as reference letters from past voluntary work

Important: If you send your application without the completed documentation, Post 83 will not process your application.

Application Process

1. Submit your completed application package (see required documents above)
2. Provide additional information, if requested
3. If all requested information is provided and is satisfactory, you may be placed on our waitlist to wait for an interview, when a unit(s) open up or are scheduled to open up
4. If your name is pulled from the waitlist and invited for an interview, you may be one of many asked to interview for one/one of the unit(s)
5. If your interview is successful and the Board of Directors has approved you to be a member, you will be offered a unit or be offered to be put on a waitlist

Interview Information: If you are invited from the waitlist to be interviewed, following our review of your application, you, each co-applicant and applicants must attend the interview in person and each bring the following:

- Two pieces of identification, both with an image, for you, each co-applicant and applicant over 18. A driver's license and passport is best.
- Updated financial information (if different from what you have already provided).
- The fee to conduct a credit check ($30.00)

Waitlist Information: It is Post 83's policy to remove from the waiting list all applicants who have been on it for one year. If you do not wish to lose your place on the waiting list, you should either email us requesting to maintain your spot on the waitlist or file another application (no extra fee) before your current one expires, if there have been changes to your information since you first applied.

The Obligations of Membership in Post 83 Co-op:

A member of Post 83 must:

- Buy a membership share ($2,000 for a one-bedroom suite or $2,500 for a two-bedroom suite) once successfully being offered a unit and before moving in
- Pay the monthly housing charge (a monthly fee payable by post-dated cheques or by automatic debit) and other fees (i.e., parking fees)
- At least one member of each unit must volunteer and participate in the operation of Post 83 Co-op each month. This includes serving on the Board of Directors, working on committees, or doing odd or ad hoc jobs.

Rental Amounts: For updated rental amounts, please consult our webpage <https://www.post83housing.ca/fog>

Pet Policy: Pets are not allowed in the building, even as visitors.

Smoking Policy: Smoking is not permitted in the units. In some suites, past members were grandfathered in. Post 83 is moving towards being a smoke free building. Members are not to smoke in the common areas including the underground parkade. Smoking is not permitted in suites or on balconies on non-smoking floors (4th, 7th, 14th and 22nd) by either members or their guests. This also includes vaping.

Ranking: Please note that according to our agreement with the Community Land Trust (through the City of Burnaby), that we must give priority to applicants that currently live in or work in Burnaby. We assess applications based on the applicants current situation and the family compliment that currently exists, not on a family compliment that may exist in the future.

Occupancy in our units: We take into account the Canadian National Occupancy Standards and are bound to occupancy standards in our agreement with the Community Land Trust and the need to not over or under house people.

- A single person cannot apply for a two-bedroom suite because a bedroom cannot be vacant;
- Spouses and partners will occupy one bedroom;
- A parent and a child cannot occupy the same bedroom;
- More than two people cannot occupy the same bedroom;
- Children over 18 years old must have their own bedroom;
- Children under 5 can share a bedroom independent of their sex;
- Children between 6 and 17 can share a bedroom if they are from the same sex.

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION FORM

Purpose of this Form

This form is designed to collect specific information from applicants seeking membership in the Post 83 housing co-operative (the Co-op) in accordance with the Personal Information Protection Act (PIPA). The Co-op uses this information to determine your eligibility for housing and the type of accommodation that will best suit your needs. The information collected will only be used in accordance with PIPA.

Review of Information and Record Keeping

The information collected in this form will be reviewed by the Co-op's designated agent(s) for the purpose of verifying your eligibility for housing. We will employ all reasonable safeguards to ensure your information is kept confidential. Records of unsuccessful applications will be kept for one (1) year to provide you with an opportunity to access these records, after which all records (electronic or paper copies) will be destroyed.
